CHARITY

The Grand Ball of Princes and Princesses goes beyond a festive evening. This glamorous and gracious event will undoubtedly leave an imprint on its guests' hearts. But it will not stop there, resulting in tangible positive impact, worldly. Whilst you are preparing to enjoy this wonderful event amongst the high society of Europe, take a minute to consider those less fortunate. This royal and star-studded event is committed to giving back to the needy.

A portion of the proceeds from the unforgettable evening will be donated to Princess Grace of Monaco Foundation. The ball organisation's purpose is to financially support such important Foundation with a charitable act in its favour. Through the benevolence of our eminent guests, others will experience the warmth of love too. Founded in 1964 by HSH Princess Grace, the Princess Grace of Monaco Foundation annually contributes considerable help, to humanitarian projects which benefit children and also helps students through cultural projects. The primary aim of the Princess Grace Foundation is to help children in hospital and their families. It helps numerous paediatric units throughout French hospitals, in particular in the purchase of equipment necessary for the treatment of young patients.

The Foundation also provides additional help to local associations, especially at Christmas time.

The Princess Grace Foundation gives its support to paediatric medical research. It currently supports four renowned French medical laboratories in their work.

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Blending the romantic aura with the splendid royalty to its full apex, the opera singer Delia Grace Noble is the real paradigm of inspiration for this occasion. She has successfully crowned herself with the extraordinary task of opening the Venice Film Festival with a spectacular one-of-a-kind Grand Ball. The sheer elegance of the theme that will be revolving around this royal event will be strengthened by the ardent emotions the guests will experience on that day.

With ineffable enthusiasm, power, and brilliance, she is ready to compellingly inspire the guests of the most awaited event of Monte-Carlo's summer. Her unique concept of meticulously combining royalty with the purest halo of entertainment at the most exquisite occasion, is going to result in an unparalleled picture, to which no other will compare. Monegasque of heart, the soprano Delia Grace Noble, who proudly received the UNICEF Ambassador title, is passionately driven by the beautiful mission of bringing even more significance and recognition to the Principality of Monaco.

This occasion will be made all the most compelling by delightfully heartfelt performances by international dancers, performers and musicians. An innovative, creative vision is ready to set on fire the sensations and passion of the guests, and the exciting concept of visual set design will take high society partakers to the imaginary fairy-tale world that is oceans apart from everyday reality. With love in the air, it will be impossible not to sway towards the most magical of cities and join a night that enchants even the most elite of the partygoers in a never-seen-before way.

EVENT VENUE

The glamorous event is to be held in the striking Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo, a luxury exclusive venue, delightfully located in the legendary Place du Casino. There are few exceptional hotels that one day stop being an address and become legend: Hôtel de Paris is one of these magical places. With a unique soul and big history, has been welcoming personalities and celebrities for over 150 years. The quintessentially iconic, warm and exclusive ambiance of the Salle Empire will indeed amaze every single guest. Colours, embellishments, and detailed styling will be worth seeing, floating feathers will softly create an atmosphere that should not be missed.

The Salle Empire will be transformed into a fairy tale palace to greet the princes and princesses decked in all their lavish finery, who will be immersed in the luxurious surrounding resonating with the princely theme. Elegant extravagance will be everywhere, from the twinkling lights to the magnificent decorations; from the details of the music or the ornament to the aroma of the evening. Starting in the 1950s, the whole world would come to visit the Princely Couple, formed by Prince Rainier III and Princess Grace, who welcomed the elite of this period, along with the whole of Hollywood.

Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo thus became a favoured place for Princess Grace. In 1956, on the occasion of her wedding to Prince Rainier, dinner was served in this prestigious establishment, which prepared the wedding cake for the official reception. 20 years later, Prince Rainier and Princess Grace celebrated their wedding anniversary, this time in the intimacy of the hotel's wine cellars. In 1974, Hôtel de Paris Monte-Carlo honoured with big pomp the 25th annive sary of the reign of Prince Rainier.

The emotional experience of a grand Gala Dinner signed by one of the best Michelin stars awarded chefs in the world, will be held in this Monaco's most ravishing place and will be graced by significant personalities from the film industry, business and political figures, academics, professionals and entrepreneurs.
